

WILLIAMSTON
THEATRE

Williamston Theatre
2025-2026 Season
Program Ad Information

Unique, targeted, and affordable advertising opportunity! Do you own a small (or large) business? Did you know that there is a way to reach thousands of great potential customers for a very small investment of your marketing dollar? Consider advertising in Williamston Theatre programs!

Important details to know:

- In 2024, over 10,000 patrons attended performances at Williamston Theatre.
- Our audience members are loyal, mature, enjoy arts and entertainment, and have disposable income and time.
- Where our audiences come from: 20% from Williamston addresses, 40% from non-Williamston Ingham County addresses, 40% from outside of Ingham County.
- There are five productions this season, with each production running 4-6 weeks. There are five performances each week.
- Our productions are professional (we are an Actors' Equity Association theatre). We are known for our intimate shows with very high quality. Our productions feature the home-grown talent of Michigan based theatre professionals.
- Advertising costs range from $75 to $900, depending on how large you want your ad, and how long you want it to run. (See details following).

Our patrons arrive at the Theatre an average of 15-20 minutes before show time. Our box office and house management staff gets them to their seats quickly. That leaves them with an average of 7-10 minutes of sitting in their seats with nothing to read but our program.

Tell them about your business! Tell them when you are open. Tell them what makes you special. Entice them to come to your place of business the next time they return to Williamston for a performance – because after they see one of our shows, they will be coming back!

Show your support the arts! The Williamston Theatre relies on fundraised revenue to cover over 50% of its annual operating expenses. Tell our patrons that you support the arts, how we make our community unique, and how we improve the quality of life here. Tell your customers who already attend that you support us by placing an ad. They will thank you for it.
